Metanoia

The Holy liturgical season of Lent is a sacred time for walking the path of conversion, as the readings of Mass point out every day in a beautiful and clear way.

However, I always struggle to understand what conversion truly means. How are we “to learn” what conversion is? Of course, we need to pay attention to the Scriptures and the various liturgies during Lent. This is the primary way towards metanoia (a radical change of life), but we should also contemplate the mystery of conversion in reality. This is what I personally need every day. For conversion to become a visible path to follow, I need to see the great deeds of the Lord in the life of other people near and far. For this reason, I try every lent to read a book describing a conversion story.

This Lent I am reading a beautiful book, which I highly recommend to everyone (A Song for Nagasaki: The Story of Takashi Nagai-Scientist, Convert, and Survivor of the Atomic Bomb) recounting the life of a Japanese doctor Takashi Nagai who converted to Catholicism just before the beginning of World War II.

As we all know, on August 9, 1945, an American B-29 dropped an atomic bomb on Nagasaki, Japan, killing tens of thousands of people in the blink of an eye, while fatally injuring and poisoning thousands more. Among the survivors from that terrible event was Takashi Nagai, a pioneer in radiology research and a convert to the Catholic Faith. Nagai lived out the remainder of his remarkable life by bringing physical and spiritual healing to his war-weary people.

Nagai’s life is a remarkable spiritual journey, a conversion from Shintoism to atheism to Catholicism. After the bomb disaster that killed thousands, including Nagai’s beloved wife, Nagai, then Dean of Radiology at Nagasaki University, threw himself into service to the countless victims of the bomb explosion, even though it meant deadly exposure to the radiation which eventually would cause his own death. While dying, he also wrote powerful books that became best-sellers in Japan. These included The Bells of Nagasaki, which resonated deeply with the Japanese people in their great suffering as it explores the Christian message of love and forgiveness. Nagai is now considered by the Church a Servant of God, the first step towards his Canonization.

Dear parishioners, conversion begins and ends when we look outside of ourselves and let God’s presence reach out to us, even amid suffering and death, like Nagai’s life witnesses to all of us!

Have a blessed Lent,

Fr. Pietro

Adult Faith Formation

The Eucharist: Heart of the Church Eucharist and Mission

Following the richness and insightfulness of the course of Faith, Hope and Charity, and the Parish Mission "The Word made flesh" by Fr. Richard Veras we desire to continue with our Adult Faith Formation, we would like to invite everyone to a new journey with us priests.

Starting Thursday March 28, 2019 6:30-8:00 pm in Fellowship Hall we will begin a series of six lessons/conversations (every fourth Thursday of the month unless otherwise announced) on the theme:

The Eucharist: Heart of the Church. Eucharist and Mission.

Fr. Pietro, Fr. Daniele, and I would like to deepen, along with you, our love and knowledge of the Eucharist as the foundation of our faith and works. The Eucharist is, indeed, the real center of our MISSION as a catholic community following the theme of this year: "Do not be afraid. Henceforth you will be catching men." (Lk 5:1-11). Without the Eucharist our faith loses its leaven and risks to be lost in the whirl of activities, or in the temptation of individualism.

Having as a point of reference Saint John Paul II's last Encyclical Letter Ecclesia de Eucharistia and other resources, during our monthly meetings we will tackle the following themes:

- The Eucharistic Structure of the Church
- The Meaning of the Eucharist in the Catholic Faith
- The Eucharist and the Mission of the church
- The Eucharist in the Sacred Scriptures
- The Celebration of the Eucharist and Eucharist Adoration
- The Eucharist and the Universal Call to Holiness.
- Mary "Woman of the Eucharist"

With this new opportunity of being fed by the teaching of the Church on the Eucharist, I extent my invitation especially to all the EMHC, home-bound ministries closely involve with the Eucharist at St. Peter and parishioners to attend this new opportunity of formation.

We desire to give to the Holy Eucharistic the respect and Divine Worship it requires.

Your priests Frs. Ettore, Pietro and Daniele.

If you currently are giving electronically and would like to increase your giving, you can go to: www.churchofstpeters.org/electronic-giving-changes.

EMAIL SCAM AFFECTING PARISHES

The Archdiocese has been notified that several local parishes have been affected by an email scam. The target appears to be staff members or volunteers who have email addresses listed on the parish's website. Using the pastor's name, the scammer will create a new email address, contact these staff members/volunteers via email and then ask for a favor. Once the staff member/volunteer responds, the scammer will ask for money or some sort of gift (often an iTunes gift card). The fraudulent emails are more difficult to detect on a mobile device, as it is not immediately evident in a mobile view that the "pastor's" email address is not correct.

Fr. Ettore and the staff at St. Peter have never contacted anyone nor would contact anyone via email and ask for money or gift cards.

If you receive such a fraudulent email from the parish or any staff member, please contact our parish business administrator, Tricia at thengemuhle@stpetersnsp.org. Do not respond to the email. In the case of any email asking for funds or appearing to be suspicious, it is a good idea to contact the person directly by phone or in person to make sure it is authentic.
