the Quill and the Cloth

"On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdela came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb."

-St. John

As darkness was settling on the "City of Lights," this past Monday night, April 15th, in Paris, France, it was particularly dark that night, for there was both spiritual smoke and a dark cloud of emotional sadness in the air. For the great Christian and Catholic landmark, the Cathedral of Notre Dame "Our Lady" (named after the Blessed Mother of God) was consumed by fire on this Monday of Holy Week, just after the great feast of Palm Sunday. Anyone who loves historic churches as I do, it was a proverbial "punch in the stomach"; even though many of us have never seen this great architectural wonder. (Personally, seeing the Cathedral of Notre Dame was on my bucket list in the next decade.*)

The Cathedral of Notre Dame had its first beginnings as far back as 1163, some 800 years ago. When the cornerstone was laid, Pope Alexander III, was in attendance. The church is believed to have been one of the best examples of French-Gothic architecture in the world. It is estimated that some 30,000 pilgrims and visitors came to see this church every day. The roof line alone that burned is estimated to be 330-feet-long! The interior of the sanctuary and nave was filled with precious art works of oil, plaster and stone. It is uncertain how much of this artwork can be saved, if anything at all.

While it is presumed at this time that the start of this landmark fire was due to some extensive construction and/or restoration of the worship space; it is worth noting that numerous Catholic churches in recent months have been vandalized or damaged in France this year in 2019. For in March of 2019, in just one week, 12 churches across France were vandalized due to anti-Catholic and anti-Christian sentiment. Questions are being raised at this time as to how a possible construction fire could spread so quickly and so fiercely in such a short span of time.

Well, regardless if the fire was the result of natural causes or human intervention, it is a monumental tragedy. This fire in many respects could be compared to the United State's 9-11. For equally, the Twin Towers in New York, that appeared almost like two cathedral spires on the Manhattan sky-line, also came crashing down, along with the loss of some 3,000 souls. (It appears that there was no loss of human life due to this fire in France.*) German Chancellor Angela Merkel, and British Prime Minister Theresa May, stated that the Cathedral of Notre Dame was a "symbol of France and our European culture."

While what these women said is true, FIRST and FOREMOST, the Cathedral of Notre Dame was a church dedicated to "Our Lady," the Blessed Mother, who bore Christ in her womb. Christ was born in Mary's "womb," so that He could come forth from the "tomb" on that first Easter morning and overcome the darkness of death and sin (and yes, even the fires of hell), to save us and allow us to share in eternal salvation.

When I saw the church burning after I returned from my morning funeral and turned on the television, I was hearing the reporters using the words "unprecedented," "unexpected," and "unimaginable." I watched with sadness this fierce physical fire in France, and immediately thought to myself that "perhaps" the origin of this historic fire is less the result of "natural forces" but instead more the result of "supernatural forces." For the adage still holds that God works in mysterious ways. I spoke to a large number of you in our Lenten Pastoral sessions that when it comes to the Church's teachings, there are two after-life existences where fires are burning according to Church teaching and tradition. Both our Lord and St. Paul make mention of these realities in the scriptures.

There was a time when France was called the "First Daughter of the Church," because the faith was so strong in this large European country. Some of the greatest saints of the Church came from the country of France. Some of these saints include: St. Therese of Lisieux, St. John Vianney, St. Bernadette of Lourdes, St. Vincent de Paul, St. Joan of Arc, and St. Catherine Laboure, to name just a few of these great and holy figures. But in only the past fifty years, the Church in France, much less the Catholic Church across Europe has fallen on some very hard spiritual times. Less than 10% of French Catholics go to Mass on Sunday. That means that 90%, the overwhelming majority, are merely cultural Catholics. The image of the Church in France that comes to my mind are the words from the Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. "They are like an empty perfume bottle that all that is left is the smell."

On this Easter, the Good News is that death and destruction is not the last word. Christ rose from the dead. It seems impossible, but those of us with supernatural faith, believe the resurrection to be true! Churches, even great cathedrals can be restored and rebuilt. If we can build great sports facilities in remote metropolitan places like Minnesota, than certainly this great Cathedral to the Blessed Mother in France, can be rebuilt to honor her Son through the sacraments weekly. May we who are passing guests on this earth have on our lips the Prayer of Fatima, prayed during each rosary: "Oh my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to heaven, especially those who are most in need of thy mercy." Happy Easter!

White Mass

Saturday, April 27th at 5:00 pm, at the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity in New Ulm, a White Mass will be celebrated by Bishop John LeVoir in honor of Catholic Health Care Professionals to support them in their ministry of helping the unborn, the elderly, the disabled and the poor. Everyone is invited to join the celebration of the Mass.

A Wholehearted Thank You After Holy Week

I do believe that the Lent at Holy Rosary for 2019, will go down as arguably one of the best! There was such a generous response of so many of you in so many different ways. Last Sunday, we had our final installment of our Pastoral Talks. I was expecting a smaller crowd since we are just days before Easter, but we had the largest crowd ever on Sunday. Thank you for your attendance and your kind words. Writing those talks took most of my "days off." Many of you told me that you learned a lot and I even have to admit that I learned a few new things that I did not know through my research.

This year we also had such a great response to our Stations of the Cross as well as our Eucharistic liturgies. Some of these Sundays were pretty intense for me personally, beginning at 6:30 A.M. and ending sometimes at 4:30 P.M. in the afternoon. It was equally encouraging to see such a large response to the Sacrament of Confession on the 5th Sunday of Lent, as well as the numerous people that came privately as well. It is a mark of a supernatural faith in the crucified and risen One! In addition to the added Lenten responsibilities, there were also numerous funerals that so many of you so generously gave of yourselves to help, either in church or the social hall. Thank you for your ministries.

As we go to press on Tuesday morning of this Holy Week, 3 of my present staff are out of the office for various reasons. Yet, there are two women who need to be acknowledged in written form who came to step up on the plate to help in these hectic Holy Week (and pre-Holy Week) days. A special word of thanks to the ever-effervescent Lorraine Klaseus who has been our substitute receptionist while Brooke Kottke had been on maternity leave after the birth of their son. Lorraine is so knowledgeable and experienced, having served in this office for some 35 years! A thousand thanks to you Lorraine!

I would be remiss if I also did not give a big and bold thank you to Cindy Gawrych, who has been covering the work of our parish bulletin and other publications for these past weeks. Cindy graciously gave up her "spring break" to work in the parish office the whole week and to give Lorraine a break. Cindy also has been doing "double duty" these past weeks by working at the public school during the day and then coming in the late afternoon, working on the bulletin as well as covering some of the daily secretarial needs. In addition, she also has been leading our choir... which by the way, sounded SUPERB at the 10:00 A.M. Mass on Palm Sunday!

Thank you to all who have assisted with the liturgies of Holy Week from the singing to the serving. To all who ushered, sang, read, cleaned, organized, did sacristy work, etc; many thanks to all of you. A special thank you also goes out to the additional members who joined the choir for Holy Week along with the faithful choir members that come week in and week out to practice and to sing on Sundays! Thank you to the many servers who have to come early to assist in more complicated liturgies as well as to come for the practices. Enjoy your Easter baskets, but don't eat it all at once!!!

I also wish to thank my loyal and faithful Worship Committee who are willing to come at different hours and times to help take-down and to decorate for Lent, Palm Sunday, Holy Week and most especially Easter. They all do it with a joyful spirit and I am certainly grateful as pastor for all of their help.

Finally, thank you to the faithful who found the time to come and to worship on these sacred days! May the risen Christ of Easter rise in your hearts so that one day too we might experience our own resurrection into everlasting life! Happy Easter!

- Father

From the Office of the Bishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

If you were to cross the Diocese of Colorado Springs, you would see the stunning mountain valleys and peaks of the Continental Divide to the west, and the wide expanses of the Great Plains to the east. However, the Diocese of Colorado Springs is a mission diocese because the terrain poses so many challenges for priests and ministers.

Each weekend, priests of the diocese traverse the treacherous mountain routes or drive hundreds of miles across the plains to preside over Sunday Masses. The lack of priests and ministers makes it difficult for the diocese to serve all of the region's Catholics. Without regular pastoral care, people, especially young adults, are susceptible to leaving the Church.

But your diocese's generosity to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports campus ministry efforts across the diocese. Campus ministry serves students at two four-year institutions, a large community college population, those attending trade and vocational schools, and cadets from the United States Air Force Academy. Your support gives young adults the opportunity to make retreats, go on pilgrimages, participate in service projects, and attend vocational discernment events. These ministry centers also offer daily and Sunday Masses, RCIA classes, regular confession times, Eucharistic adoration, Bible studies, and other opportunities to build community.

As Michelle Maher-Lyons, Director of Catechesis, Youth Ministry, and Evangelization, expressed: "Our program is growing larger all the time and we still have large numbers of young people to welcome what we do. It is with your support we are able to be the light of Christ to the young Church. Thank you for your support."

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Last year, the Diocese of New Ulm received $100,000 for the support of the Office of Hispanic Ministry, the Office of Communications and the Lay Ministry Training Program. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

In Christ,

The Most Reverend John M. LeVoir
Bishop of New Ulm
